Very well mannered breeders. Extremely quiet to handle in and around the yards. Stood like lambs in the crush, and all exited at a steady walk. One heifer was just a bit anxious in the paddock after weighing, wanting to stand at the gate and get back out into her paddock.

4 Head	Rub marks from carting home in the truck day of assessment.

Assessor Comments	This is a very attractive line of medium framed females that have been doing it tough, on the side of a cold, hilly bush block, with only short, wintery native pastures to graze. All carrying a big tank of milk underneath & doing an excellent job with their poddies with one of the solid black cows raising a pair of sappy twin calves. These cows are in the prime of their life and would make great front paddock animals for any experience of livestock handler. Buyers please Note. Vendor is down sizing numbers due to the sale of a paddock.
