Assessor Comments: Buyers here is an opportunity to secure a line of very good quality Angus heifers. These heifers have been selected from low birth weight, high growth bulls from leading Angus studs. They stand on good bone and confirmation and represent all Angus breed characteristics. These feminine females are at a suitable weight and in the perfect condition for buyers to take home and join to the bulls of their choice. These heifers would also be well suited the Angus feeder market or domestic market it is noted that the genetics have been selected on high IMF.
