| Assessor Comments | A B-double load of one mark NSM Angus heifers purchased direct the breeder account Windfalls (Angus) Pastoral - Campbell Town, TAS. Based on Banquet and Millah Murrah Angus genetics and showing true to type. They are front paddock candidates being deep bodied, soft coated and easy doing with a terrific temperament. These heifers have averaged +1kg/hd/day weight gain since arriving. They were purchased in for a winter trade due to above average rainfall at Booligal and were forced on the market due to the tough season in Tasmania. They have not had access to the bulls and are in great condition without being overdone. They are suitable for a range of trade and breeding operations. Presenting primed for an immediate joining to your sire of choice, weighing 300-392kg full at assessment. 100% grass fed and antibiotic free. Top quality Angus heifers presenting as an even line and ready to be taken to the next level. Should you require any additional information please call. |
