Assessor Comments	Well-bred line of Kullingrah blood merino ewes NSM. Ewes stand in predominately forward condition and ideal to carry forward for a spring joining. Ewes are bred for a very good local flock with excellent wool attributes. They present evenly as a group and would be equally suit to a merino or terminal sire. Ewes are classed in breeders with all of their lives ahead of them. Kullingrah merino stud bloodlines are based along Yarrowonga and grassy creeks bloodlines. Please call for further information
