Assessor Comments	Well-bred line of Kullingrah blood merino ewes rising 18 months of age. Genetically, ewes are bred from a very productive flock. Ewes are currently carrying minimal condition and are all frame. Mature age Kullingrah ewes are genuine solid medium to larger frame types which are fertile with excellent wool attributes. These ewes will mature the same way if given the opportunity. Ideal opportunity to purchase these young ewes to shear and grow out for a 2025 joining program. Ewes are even as a group and stand in strong store condition. Please note ewes received a full crutch post assessment. Please call for further information.
