Heifers were quite free moving & anxious at drafting, with a lack general education in the yards. They were brought up from the back yard by a single handler into the force yard, and were very nervous, but generally well behaved in the crush, all exiting from the side gate. Cattle that just need more handling.

Handled With	Bikes , Dogs , On foot , Vehicles

Notable Traits
	Traits
1 Head	Small lump on jaw (1/2 golf ball sized) noticed after weighing, to be checked at delivery

Assessor Comments	Store condition Heifers that have done it tough all year and have not been spoilt. Just ticking along on an old lupin stubble with some supplementary hay before moving onto some fresh pastures approximately 3 weeks ago. These Heifers are all frame and present in mostly 1 & low 2 score condition, offering the successful purchaser a huge compensatory weight gain kick heading into Spring. Good, low dollar investment cattle with plenty of opportunity.
