	Steers were anxious at drafting, and lack general education in the yards. They were brought up from the back yard by a single handler into the force yard, and were very nervous, but generally well behaved in the crush, all exiting from the side

Handled With	gate. Cattle that just need more handling. Bikes , Dogs , On foot , Vehicles
Notable Traits	Traits 17 Head Pizzley front being cut late
Assessor Comments	Store condition steers that have done it tough all year and have not been spoilt. Just ticking along on an old lupin stubble with some supplementary hay before moving onto some fresh pastures approximately 3 weeks ago. These steers are all frame and present in mostly 1 & low 2 score condition, offering the successful purchaser a huge compensatory weight gain kick heading into Spring. Good, low dollar investment steers with plenty of opportunity. Please Note. Majority of steers were only marked about 12 weeks ago, with many still presenting quite thick & pizzley.
