Extremely quiet heifers that were a pleasure to handle. Each heifer walked up the race one by one with hardly any pressure and stood patiently for weighing then exited at a slow walk. These heifer would suit any level of livestock experience.

Assessor Comments	This pretty line of Speckle Park Angus x heifers would be the perfect addition for anyone looking at a front paddock article. With their whole life in front of them these heifers will provide an opportunity to buy into a line of excellent future breeders. With great Woodland Speckle Park blood running through them and the addition of Angus they will grow out for any feeder or butcher job given the right management. With their excellent nature these heifer will be perfect for any hobby farmer looking for a splash of colour on their place.
