Assessor Comments	This line of young cows were part of a larger mob preg tested. (Red taggers offered same sale). Vendors purchased them as 1st and 2nd calvers with calf at foot. They were running back with high quality Te Mania Angus bulls for 1 month prior to purchase and vendors put a Hazeldean bull straight in on arrival. These are the later cows to get in calf with the vet commenting that the majority of these cows were only days away from being red taggers on testing. They handled well through the yards. The majority of them are medium frame. They weighed 582 average after overnight curfew. All their lives ahead of them as good breeding units.
