Assessor Comments	This line of mixed-age Angus cows, including three first-calve heifers, represents an excellent opportunity for any producer seeking to run a well-bred mob of quality Angus cows that are ready to thrive on spring feed. Currently in their working clothes with a sappy 2-6 week old calf at foot. Given the right management and feed, these girls will not disappoint. Whether you're planning a split job early next year or looking to invest in a reliable herd of proven breeders for future production, this line offers solid potential.
