| Assessor Comments             | Rosevale Ridge offers a line of 13x13 Vendor bred Angus/Angus Charolais X Heifers with their first calves at foot sired by Bowmont Angus bulls. These heifers are only being sold as they are surplus to requirement due to seasonal conditions. Heifers present in forward store condition and are doing a fantastic job on their calves at foot. Heifers averaged 485.2kg at assessment, are on a rising nutritional plain and if shown quality nutrition will continue to go forward as future breeders and raise outstanding weaner calves. Heifers have not been re-joined to give buyers the opportunity to join to the sires of their choice. Buyers, please note 2 heifers noted to have scur and one with small white patch on belly. One Steer calf noted to have white hair on scrotal area. |                                           |                                     |
