Temperament not assessed in Paddock

Heifers were worked through the yards with little fuss. When pressure was applied to push heifers up the race and into the crush they did show signs of being agitated and some did become slightly stirry. When released back with mob the cattle quietened down right away. As seen in videos when in the mob left alone they didn't bat an eyelid.

Assessor Comments

On offer is an excellent line of EU Accredited Angus heifers the are 12-13 months of age. Heifers are pure Bongongo Angus blood and vendors source high indexing bulls each year. They were all weighed 364 to 470kgs at assessment and present evenly as a line. This article presents a number of options. Heifers provide very good genetic merit to be bred from and given there maturity, weight & frame would continue to show good gains in the feed pens or suit any grass fattening programs. Heifers have had no access to bulls and are due for there 2nd 7in1 on delivery if looking to put with bull of choice. For anymore information please call assessor.
