Assessor Comments	Originally classed in to be retained. A tighter spring has lead to the re-classing of the 2023 drop ewe hoggets allowing this line of 400 ewes to be offer for sale. Presenting and excellent opportunity to add or start with some exceptional ewes. Of the 3000 ewes in the complete drop 1/3 have already been sold. this is the re draft of the top 2/3 of the drop. Pastora blood ewes have performed over many years in the Australian Merino Production trial (see in photos the latest results) and these fine wool heavy cutting ewes present a great opportunity to secure high performing poll merino genetics - can highly recommend
