Assessor Comments	Once again an outstanding draft of young Table Top Angus females with an opportunity for the prospective buyer to jump ahead in years overnight with there breeding operation by purchasing top end stud quality genetics with females that have a list of pedigrees a mile long. Tim & Jess have taken great pride for many years now breeding top tier Angus cattle and these are no exception with not only a tonne of breeding but also extremely quiet that even the most inexperienced stockman could handle. These females were to be retained in the commercial side of the herd however due to ongoing dry seasonal conditions it has become a real chance for someone to secure these magnificent females that don't arise everyday. TTA is very highly regarded and well respected Angus herd and these cattle are definitely not too be missed!
