|                        | Beautiful young heifers to handle. Temperament has been bred into these cattle, together with good handling making them a pleasure to work with. All heifers quietly walked through the yards with no issues. Walked on the scales without hesitation and stood well to be weighed. Lovely natured females with future breeder written all over them.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |        |  |        |             |        |                   |        |                                         |

| Assessor Comments      | Absolutely outstanding young heifers with very good growth for age, deep & long barrelled with beautiful heads - Heifers that just ooze that maternal nature. These lovely females would have been kept and joined, however vendor wants to tighten numbers this time coming in to the Summer. The temperament of these heifers is truly a credit to the vendor, Selective breeding accompanied by a good education has made these heifers a delight to handle in every manner. All heifers were a pleasure to walk through the yards with, and handle throughout the weighing process. These heifers have been given the best start possible, are glowing with good health and are ready to take on and join to the Bull of your choice. 100% Grass only fed, Antibiotic Free. Eligible for all Grass only programs.
