Some steers became nervous and unsettled while in the race and crush, but all seemed to settle back down once they were back in the mob.

Assessor Comments

A tidy line of Angus x Angus Steers showing plenty of stretch and frame to grow into heavy feeder steers or bullocks. Steers are the progeny from cows purchased from "Emu Creek" at Walcha and were calved down in Queensland. Steers have been transported to vendors property in Narromine 3 months ago and have kept gaining weight since. Steers are well educated and good to handle in the yards and extremely quiet in the paddock. 2 head noticed with a old blue eye scaring. Vendor has 4 lots of cattle in this sale.
