|                        | Extremely placid young steers! Very quiet to draft off from the sisters. Very quiet to handle through the yards, all led up the race without hesitation and all exited the crush at a walk. Just 2 steers that did some stomping on the scales, displaying some nervous behaviour. Wandered out into the cooler for photos and just relaxed in the sunshine. Steers with an impeccable temperament that would be ideal for a 'mature aged' bullock fattener or could be handled by a stockperson of any experience.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                |                                     |
