Extremely good to handle - (especially for their breed). Easy to draft off their brothers. Brought up the race individually and stood well in the crush without a back gate, with almost all of them exiting again at a walk. - a real credit to the vendor on the education that was put in to them at weaning. Easy to walk around in the yards with and get photos, just the odd few heifers that felt more comfortable at the back of the mob, and wanted to rush past during videoing.

Assessor Comments

Just the lighter/younger brothers & sisters out of the 2 main drafts offered by the Mason family. Everything right about them, just wanting a bit more time to grow out. Out of a class herd of Te Mania blood cows, by Wagyu sires selected for marble & F1 production. (See pedigrees) This is a good little line of growers, suit to put back with either of the main drafts and start on a feed ration. Please see photos & video for full contentment.
