	Buyers these heifers were an absolute treat to handle! they were easy and quiet to work through the yards and were unsettled in the crush. Once let out of the crush they just walked into the mob and stood still behind us. The triple S stud is renowned for quiet temperament in both their stud & commercial operation, with the vendors young children heavily involved helping amongst the herd. I have full confidence they will continue to be easy to handle and live up to their reputation.
