Assessor Comments	Well grown frames store lambs that will shape into neat trade or domestic style lambs. These lambs are only young but are growing well in a challenging year, they are sired by high indexed Suffolk rams sourced from Banquet out of a Wairere blood ewe flock. They have been weaned and had all animal health treatments. These lambs have been running on lucerne pasture paddocks on volcanic soil. These lambs are normally retained and finished into trade or export lambs but due to the tough seasonal conditions they are being offered now. Ideal lambs to feed on for winter markets.
