Assessor Comments	A top-quality line of Yalgoo blood classed Merino Ewes. Ewes have Electronic, Individually numbered NLIS tags. Leading Yalgoo sires have been used in the flock including an AI program. Ewes were individually micron tested as hoggets, with the data available if requested. These ewes represent a great opportunity to obtain top-quality Yalgoo genetics. Highly recommended. Non-Mulesed since 2005. Last year, These ewes scanned at 150% to Merino Rams with the lambs weaned in early January. Blaxland's complete merino lamb wether portion was finished on crop through the spring and averaged 24.4kg carcase weight, returning over $200 per head plus the wool value of the fleece. The vendor is willing to sell the lead 6 decks of these ewes if it best suits the buyer's requirements.
