Assessor Comments	Jarrahwood Pastoral is offering 367 SIL 2023 drop Ewes. These Ewes have had all the treatments and present a very appealing young line of Ewes. They are being trial fed barley and in my opinion are in good condition considering their stage of pregnancy. Given the right opportunity these ewes are in good stead to commence lambing late march. Ewes are Woodpark blood and the mature clip generally averages around 18 micron. They have a good start in the clip. Vendor has been breeding quality first cross ewes using Womboota BL rams for a number of years. 280 head are classed in and can be identified via tag if is required. Versatile ewes that have enough credentials to go into a Merino operation or any terminal lamb program.
