|                        | The slightly stirry heifers in the crush would not settle in the head bail but did mostly walk away from the crush. 1 heifer became agitated in the race & crush. In the bigger yards there was 2 heifer that were quick moving but was not aggressive to those handling the cattle. Over all good to handle in the yards.                                                                   |                          |                             |
