Cattle handled very easily through a good set up. Only the odd one rushing while being confined. These steers are very well handled .

Assessor Comments: Tarrone View offer an outstanding line of 100 of their winter 24 born steers that tick all the boxes. These calves are bred from Pathfinder blood cows that have tremendous depth and width throughout and these steers are showing all of those attributes. These quality steers have had all the treatments and have been weaned up properly and given the right grazing conditions will thrive into growing out to feeders or bullocks. Past buyers have been extremely happy with these steers and they come with my highest recommendation. Also interested buyers note vendor has another group of 65 tops of the steers in the same sale.
