Assessor Comments	Wonderful line of Young Angus females and calves, they are exceptionally quiet and good to work with they have calved down to a Stud Jarabee Angus bull Calving in Mid November 2024 onwards. They are structurally sound and offer medium/larger framed bodies, females that will be an asset to any breeder looking for good Angus breeders please note they have not been rejoined and calves have been vaccinated and marked. Note several calves have been treated at assessment they have been treated with opticlox eye ointment. We will treat again prior to delivery or discuss prior to collection
