	This young line of heifers and calves handled very nicely with only 2 heifers stirring up in the race and crush but settled once out with others in pen. These heifers will suit anyone with an intermediate to advanced level of knowledge and livestock handling.

Assessor Comments	This vendor-bred line of heifers presents a fantastic opportunity for anyone looking to enter the breeding game or enhance an existing herd. With no expense spared, these heifers boast strong bloodlines, including Anvil and Fernhill, ensuring quality genetics. Typically retained as part of the core breeding herd, they are only available due to a tight season. They've had all the hard work done and are proving themselves as exceptional first-time mothers, raising strong poddy calves. Don't miss the chance to secure well-bred, well-handled heifers ready to contribute to your herd's future success.
