	Heifers gathered well from the paddock with ute and dogs, in yards they did stir and rush little under pressure but settled when walked and were good to handle. Weighing in the crush did agitate a few but they settled once back in the yard.

Assessor Comments	These are the 3rd draft of this line of “The Rocks” heifers, very true to type and show a lot of shape and muscling. They are the younger end of the draft and have good Angus attributes and should grow out to suit any breeding or fattening operation.
