| Assessor Comments  | 12 PTIC Angus cows that are coming up to their third calf this spring, joined to an Angus bull. They are 4 years of age and are a pleasure to handle. These cows still have their large spring drop calves running with them and they will be weaned off at delivery, however a percentage of cows have already weaned their calves off. Cows are only for sale due to lack of water on the property |                |                                     |
