Assessor Comments	Reluctant sale of breeding herd. Cows are of great quality but not expressing that fully with the season and rationing of feed presenting them in light store condition. I have sold the calves off these cows for many years and the cows usually present in 550-750kg range. Really does represent an opportunity for a some one to take on a mixed age herd to keep or trade through once calved and fattened. Cows currently have calves on them and they will be weaned at delivery. Cows can be re preg tested before delivery if required with no requirement for successful purchaser to take any cows not in calf.
