Handled With	Cows were all quite well behaved in yards and crush, just a few that were a bit anxious with a bigger flight zone, just wanting to evade pressure in the smaller pens. All led up the race well. A few that were a bit jumping in the crush when we had to catch in the bail and look at their ear tag, listed above as slightly stirry/stirry. All very good out in the paddock. Drove right up to them to get photos, and they were settled and happy on a fresh bit of pasture.
