Assessor Comments	Reedy Creek Pastoral are offering a tremendous opportunity to purchase exceptionally quiet & well-handled Cows & Calves that will be a significant boost to your already existing Autumn calving herd or be that starter package you've always been looking for. Reedy Creek Pastoral is generally a Spring calving operation & unfortunately had a not so welcoming pregnancy test early last year which left them with the difficult decision as to what to do with their beloved classed in females? Thankfully for you as a prospective purchaser, they decided to rejoin them for an Autumn calving program to give someone else the opportunity to experience the journey of owning well-bred females with outstanding docility. These matrons are currently doing a fantastic job on their offspring & given the chance they will flourish on greener pastures. It is to be noted these animals are not culls & are sold under genuine circumstances.
