Assessor Comments	Annual sale of 2024 spring drop Steers (Tops of the drop) . The Baxter Agricultural Company herd is a widely regarded Angus herd in the region and are noted doing cattle. Bred by high indexing Dunoon bulls these Steers will perform extremely well in many environments. All yard weaned and well-handled these Steers carry plenty of frame and are very fresh. Please note 7 steers presented with pinkeye scarring. These steers are currently being supplementary feed and are bunker trained making them suitable to background as feeders or take onto domestic or export processing weights.
