On the day there was plenty happening, with the yards being at full capacity, cattle being bought in fresh from the paddock, calves being drafted off their mothers for marking, as well as cows being put up the race for weighing and needling. All happening in a small timeframe before being returned to the paddock. Considering all of this, there was the odd cow that was slightly stirry but overall cattle handled relatively well in a noisy, stressful environment. 1 cow became stirry in the laneway

Assessor Comments	Full Herd Dispersal On offer is 31 rising 7, 8 & 9 year old Angus cows PTIC to Bongongo Angus bulls. Vendor is leasing out their property in the coming months which has bought on the sale of their breeding stock. Cows present in very good condition, having weaned spring drop calves off them only 1 week ago. On the day of preg testing the cows were given a 7in1 booster. These females were all purchased account the breeder from Auctionplus and have now been intermingled on the property for several years. Vendor has always kept up best practice with the breeding herd with preg testing each year and any empties removed from the property. Cows are too commence calving at the end of July. These are good quality mature aged cows that have produced high performing progeny each year and should continue to for the purchaser.
