	These cows had been through the yards frequently with weaning, preg testing and now assessing. They probably had

Handled With	enough of the handling. Did tend to want to run. Handled properly and with care they were fine. Certainly were no trouble in the crush and race but were fast enough through a gate Bikes , Dogs , On foot , Vehicles
Assessor Comments	46 PTIC store cows in the prime of their life looking for a greener pasture! August / September 21 drop cows preg tested up for their third calf to the Mundara Angus sires. From one of the longest standing Angus herds in the Blayney district. Moderate framed cows with plenty of scope to go ahead and perform. Running in some very tight conditions at present these cows will bound ahead shown the right tucker. Cows with a heap of potential. Certainly worth close consideration
