Possibly the quietest cattle I have handled. Credit to the vendor in the way they have handled these weaners.
Temperament second to none.

Assessor Comments A nice little line of weaned Black Baldy and Angus steers. Bongongo blood steers that are well weaned and their temperament was a real highlight, exceptionally quiet. This line presents with a tail removed. These weaners are usually retained until the springtime but need to be moved on as the season tightens. Steers appear to be healthy and on the do and will perform well on quality feed. Steers straight Angus sisters also offered in same sale.
