Assessor Comments	Quality line of Angus steers. Vendor selects the top end sires from Hardhat and Crawford studs. These steers would normally be kept onto heavy feeder weights but due to the current season the steers are on the market. Great steers to take on with them presenting as all frame. These steers are bred out of some good framed cows. These steers won't disappoint, everything is right for them to just bounce forward given the right opportunities. Buyers please see vendors other line of 17 Angus x steers in the same sale. Any questions please call myself.
