All heifers were extremely quiet to muster off the hills and yard. In the yards they handled well and were overall very quiet.

Notable Traits	Traits
	2 Head Warts (Minor)
Assessor Comments	A small run of very quiet heifers. All heifers were extremely quiet to yard and handle. They would definitely suit a small holding looking for calm and easy to manage animals or also slot into an established herd. These were intended to be retained but are being moved on due to seasonal conditions. Currently grazing native pasture with supplementary hay.
