Assessor Comments	Buyers on offer are a very good quality line of 100% Lambpro Primeline 2023 drop ewes. These ewes offer a very good genetic base as the vendor has been on this bloodline since 2007. These breeders are the results of the continued development in the self replacing prime lamb production model and come with strong recommendation. Ewes present in forward condition and display all the quality traits associated with this bloodline. Buyers please call with any questions.
