Assessor Comments: A great line of steers sourced from reputable vendors at Naracoorte weaner sales. Present in very good condition, especially considering the significant rain and cold weather they have endured over the past few months. Under normal circumstances, they would be retained and grown out for the feedlot or fat markets. Due to changing market conditions the vendor is looking to rest the country more to focus on cutting more hay in the spring. They are well suited to buyers looking to continue growing them out. They have great frame and they are well positioned to continue performing well.
