Cattle ran well down the race and were well behaved in the crush. The odd steer a bit quicker to move through than others but overall the temperament of cattle was great to manage

Assessor Comments	89 quality Angus steers averaging 337.5kg (full) at assessment carrying the highly regarded Reiland blood. 85% of these steers are Vendor bred with the other 15% bought as cows and calves directly from Reiland Angus stud. Vendor has never offered steers before this light as they are usually grown out and sold directly to the feedlots. Bred in the heart of the Upper Murray these steers were sent to us to place on agisment and have not looked backed. Steers were sent to us on the 12th June averaging 230kg when they arrived. Powering on the weight due to their growth and temperament. Steers are up to date on treatments including first Bovillus Shot. (if the successful purchaser requires Paperwork, it is available) Please note a percentage of cattle have rub marks hairless patches on head, on neck and some blue eye scarring outlined in notable traits. I believe none of these notable trates are dentrimental to the successful buyer.
