Assessor Comments	A Great opportunity to secure a neat lot of majority New England bred Angus heifers. These young females present in great condition and have grown out extremely well since there purchase earlier this year showing the great constitution from their breeding background. With Spring just around the corner these heifers that have had a great start are the perfect article to join in October to he bull of your choice, continue on backgrounding for the feeder market or finish for the domestic trade. Heifers are showing all the attributes to grow into lovely females. Quality yearlings not too be missed, please see another two lines of weaner heifers for sale from this same vendor totaling another 26 head.
