| Assessor Comments            | A great quality line of WSX NSL that will average just shy of 35kgs at delivery. These lambs are the tops of the drop, and having been bred out of Mumblebone and Aloeburn Blood merino ewes, these lambs have the genetics to grow out in to export weighted lambs given the opportunity. A very neat two decks of lambs with this being the lead top.                                      |
