Assessor Comments	A good run of well bred classed Poll Merino ewe lambs . They have been running on dry native pasture since weaning with no special treatment and present in healthy store condition, all frame and after recent rain are getting a bit of green pick and starting to go ahead quickly . These lambs are a good example of the Poll Merino, Good soft skin with little wrinkle carrying a nice pelt on their back. plenty of length and bone, All lambs weighed from 33kg, to 47 kg. The main mob of ewes cut 3.5 kg of wool at 8 months and generally come in at 17.5 to 18 .2 micron. Good ewes to start with or add to existing flocks
