Assessor Comments	Annual draft of the Windermere Wether lambs. These lambs are backed by years of breeding, this line representing the wether portion of a self replacing flock. Orrie Cowie and Rices Creek Blood, they are the exact product you would come to expect. Presenting super fresh and poised to continue forward. Harvest the rebate on their back and watch them grow! These lambs will perform and easily finish to export weights or use them as large frame heavy cutting wool growers.
