Assessor Comments	Outstanding line of NSM 2022/2023 drop Poll Merino ewes. Ewes are the product of an outstanding season and were all scanned in lamb this year with drys removed annually. Ewes are bred from a well managed flock with the vendor investing heavily in his poll merino genetics annually. Ewes are plain bodied large frame types in predominately forward condition. They are even as a group and classed annually by Jack Kelly. Ewes are unmulsed, carry a clean bill of health and are ready to join. For further information please call.
