	A good solid line of heifers to handle. No stress. Not the best set of yards in the world to work cattle and really no trouble to go through the assessment process

Assessor Comments	A very nice three deck line of Angus heifer yearlings. August / September drop heifers just starting to hit their straps as they come out of a very long and cold tablelands winter. By Karoo and Myanga Angus bulls these girls are showing plenty of stretch and style. Hair starting to fly out of them as the spring weather takes affect, would now suit either a joining program or to go into a backgrounding / finishing market as well. Recently drenched with a fluke & worm pour on - still within an ESI until the 8th of December - truly can be the set and forget program. Show them the spring flush and they will quickly kick away. Certainly worth a close look here.
