Vendor Comments

These are part of an annual turnoff of weaner heifers surplus to further breeding purposes. These cattle have had no grain or antibiotic at any stage of their life. They have had access to cotton seed though.

Any Access To Bulls or Stags?

Not Station Mated

Yes, last access to bulls/stags: 15/09/2025

Joining Access Details	Exposed to bulls as followers on the cows up until weaning. Unlikely these would be cycling due to weight and age however no guarantees are offered.
Temperament	Yards	Crush	Paddock
	Quiet: 71 head	Quiet: 68 head Slightly Stirry: 3 head	Temperament not assessed in Paddock
	Heifers were very quiet in all areas of the yards. Approximately 3 head did resent being in the crush but they settled down very quickly once they exited the crush and were back with the main mob.

Notable Traits	Traits 2 Head Old ring worm scar near eye 2 Head Very light warts near eye 1 Head Very small blue dot in one eye (photo attached)
Assessor Comments	Buyers, good quality Angus heifers bred from females purchased out of the New England area. They present in mainly store to forward store condition and look to be gaining weight on the good quantity/quality feed at their disposal. The heifers are very quiet; the vendor's always do an excellent job throughout the weaning process and is reflected in these. They possess plenty of length and depth of barrel and don't look to have had any health setbacks at any stage of their life. The heifers are just starting to clean up in the coat, they are healthy, and I would suggest these will fly ahead if they get access to improved pastures or crop especially on heavier country. All the hard work is done; they are well and truly over the weaning process. Ideal to put away and background to domestic feedlot entry weights or retain for future breeding. Cattle from Wongavale are continually attracting repeat buyers, evidence they must perform.
