| Steers were good to handle in yards. Steers have been educated and worked, only a small portion seeking an exit although not showing any signs of aggression and respected handler. Steers were easy to photograph and all round good cattle to handle. |                         |      |                         |                                     |
