Handled well through the yards, a couple heifers stir up under pressure however calm down quickly when returned to the mob. As a whole they work as a docile group of cattle

Assessor Comments A quality line of Charbray heifers that possess plenty of bone and genetics to guarantee performance for the next buyer. The owner has selected quality sires from Huntington, Greenfields and his own stud breeding operation named Dellyvon. Can highly recommend these cattle as they are renowned doing cattle. Note there is one black heifer in the mob that is not vendor bred. Any queries about assessment please give me a call.
