| Assessor Comments      | A good opportunity to acquire a neat line of future breeders with years of breeding genetics behind them. Lyntunga are known for quality breeding cattle with focus on easy calving and quick growing calves, These heifers have come out of a very tough growing season so are a bit lighter than normal this time of year but they are catching up very quickly now a green pick is available. So bid with confidence that these Heifers will perform. |                                           |                |
